

LARGE CAP SHARE BUYBACK FUND

A Shares: SBQAX | U Shares: SBQUX | I Shares: SBQIX

The Fund seeks growth of capital by investing primarily in the common stocks of large domestic companies that have engaged in a share repurchase program in the last twelve months.

INVESTOR PROFILE

This Fund is suitable for investors who:

- seek higher long term capital gain appreciation;
- have average risk appetite for equities; and
- seek investment opportunities

INVESTMENT STRATEGY

The Fund takes advantage of the "share buyback anomaly" by owning large cap domestic stocks that have purchased their own stock over the last trailing twelve months or have announced significant share buy back programs. The Fund is rebalanced periodically to an equal weighting between all the positions and is expected to hold between 40 to 80 names. Other factor considerations include recent financial performance, cash flow generation, balance sheet strength, and relative performance.

NOT FDIC INSURED | NOT BANK GUARANTEED | MAY LOSE MONEY

As with any mutual fund, there is no guarantee that the Fund will achieve its goal. The Fund's net asset value and returns will fluctuate and you could lose money on your investment in the Fund. Credit Risk. There is a risk that issuers and counterparties will not make payments on securities and other investments held by the Fund, resulting in losses to the Fund. Stock Market Risk. Overall stock market risks may also affect the value of the Fund. Factors such as domestic economic growth and market conditions, interest rate levels and political events affect the securities markets. Turnover Risk. Because the Fund may reconstitute periodically due to fund flows and rebalancing the Fund may have portfolio turnover rates in excess of 100%. Increased portfolio turnover causes the Fund to incur higher brokerage costs, which may adversely affect the Fund's performance and may produce increased taxable distributions. ETF Risk. When the Fund invests in another investment company, including an ETF, it will indirectly bear its proportionate share of any fees and expenses payable directly by the other investment company. Therefore, the Fund may incur higher indirect expenses by using ETFs. Lipper Multi Cap Core Funds Index - is an unmanaged equal dollar weighted index of the largest mutual funds within the Multi Cap Core fund classification as defined and tracked by Lipper. Unlike other indexes, the Lipper index includes the fees and expenses of the mutual funds included in the index. Fund Holdings and/or security allocations are subject to change at any time and are not recommendation to buy or sell any security.
